Celebration 73: Sue, Geo and John

The directors would like to request next year another night and make it an annual L.I.A. affair. A letter of thanks will be written to Dick.
The board passed a resolution of thanks to Sue and John.

Operation I. D. The J.C.'s are getting press releases together. Jim will work with the J.C.'s. Lloyd needs a machine, as he was ripped off.

Litter Campaign- Don Young

The campaign will be Oct 27 from 9-4. Geo and Tom will be coorinatiors. Groups will pick up supplies from the Ford Agency the Thursday and Friday before. Jim Polk has reserves so the weather will be great. The date for the Spring will be set by January 1. One of the committee should serve as chairman. L.I.A. should keep the responsibility of coorinating.

S.O.S. Lloyd spoke about the plus sides of SOS. Many questions have been raised during the presentations. Don Young speaking for the Chamber of Commerce said no one is against SOS, it is just a question of prorieties. More immediate problems. Ridges can be protected by our ordinances.

Lloyd moved the Board of Directors of LIA endorce idea of SOS bond issue. Marv seconded. It was a tie vote so therefore does not carry. Bob Kramer suggested a forum was needed to clear issues. Lloyd said there was not time and the group involved did not want to have one. Needs 2/3 votes to pass.

Lee Pfauch spoke about the Kaiser Estate:7/½ acreas would go to the city, tennis club with restaurants would be available to city, 300,00 maintence would be pd, the cost of units would be 55,000-60,000 each for 2-3 bedrooms, 30-3 unit groups. The developer will be meeting with groups involved within a week or ten days.

Meeting was adjourned.
